

Alicia Thompson

School Library System Director and Supervisor [SLS], Regional Library Automation Services

Works with Department of Library Development, SED and regional counterparts to provide to support library content, research skills and online resources tools needed by our school library media specialists and students. Also supervises the Library Automation service and its staff.

(716) 821-7070
athompson@e1b.org