Session 1

Creating a Process Journal

Main Building Room 101 | Amy Capalbo, JFK High School

Create an art process journal and explore techniques for documenting ideas and recording progress. Learn how keeping a journal fosters creativity, reflection, and growth, helping to track artistic evolution and enhance focus for both emerging and seasoned artists. (Journal paper provided; bring preferred 2D art supplies.)

Visual Art, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary

AI, Ethics & Copyright

Main Building Room 102 | Eileen Anderson, Erie 1 BOCES

Explore the crossroads of AI, ethics, and copyright in art creation. This workshop provides essential insights for educators and students on ethical AI art creation and the legal landscape of AI-generated art. Equip yourself with the knowledge to navigate this evolving field responsibly.

Visual Art, Media Art, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary, Administration

Artistic Intersections

Recital Hall | Anna Matrix, Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra

Join BPO English hornist Anna Mattix as she explores the intersection between music and other art forms in the classroom and beyond.

Visual Art, Media Art, Band, Chorus, General Music, Theatre, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary, Administration

Cute Clay Animals

Main Building Room 103 | Meri Tomasulo-Pellow, Lancaster CSD

Students and teachers love working with model magic clay! For this workshop, I will present my "Cute Clay Bunnies" K-3 Art Lesson, and then participants will have time to create their own cute clay animal sculptures. I will share my google slide presentation for this lesson, which includes a famous artist reference and a read aloud video story for inspiration. I will also show how I utilize my Youtube channel videos (@artmakeslifemer) as an effective teaching tool.

Visual Art, Elementary

Bending Wood 18 PEOPLE MAX

Art Shop | Jesse Walp, Villa Maria College

We will explore multiple methods for bending wood which may be used in studio practice or the classroom.

Session 2

Enhancing Student Portfolio Practices with PRO Learning

Main Building Room 101 | Jackie Gilleran & Lizzie Campanella, Art of Education University

As high school students create and curate a well-rounded art portfolio, standards-aligned success skills are essential to ensure a strong artistic voice is present through both artist statements and selected works. Join the Art of Education University to learn more about how PRO Learning aligns with New York State standards-aligned teaching and learning strategies to support student portfolio success skills. Participants will experience how PRO can enhance portfolio-focused curriculum as well as gain access to complementary PRO resources to implement in their art room as soon as tomorrow!

Visual Art, Media Art, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary, Administration

Building Confident Music Creators

Main Building Room 102 | Christian Oliver, CiTi BOCES

Being able to create music is an essential skill for our student musicians. The reality though is this is often a skill that most professional musicians struggle with when it comes to improvising and developing their own musical responses. Through this session educators will experience different ways to quickly and effectively implement improvisation into their classrooms with fun and ease for students based on foundational skills.

Band, Chorus, General Music, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary, Administration

Maximizing Arts in Education

Recital Hall | Dan Lynch, Erie 1 BOCES

This session will focus on the Arts in Education CoSer and highlight ways in which your district can provide cost effective arts learning experiences for you and your students!

Visual Art, Media Art, Band, Chorus, General Music, Theatre, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary, Administration

The Creating Domain and the IAAP: It's All Fun and Games!

Main Building Room 103 | Christian Oliver, Citi BOCES

The Individual Arts Assessment Pathway is a fantastic opportunity for students to showcase their knowledge through an authentic portfolio experience. The question many music educators are asking though, is how to meet the requirements for the composition component of the Creating Domain. In this session, we will go through different dictation, improvisation, and composition games and activities that can be implemented into your rehearsals and classrooms to scaffold the knowledge necessary to assist in the composition tasks!

Band, Chorus, General Music, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary, Administration

AI Image Generation with Canva

Main Building Room 106 | Samantha Ping, Erie 1 BOCES

"Canva Dream Lab" is an AI image generator feature within the Canva design platform, allowing users to create unique images simply by providing a text description; essentially, you type in what you want to see, and the AI generates a visual representation based on your prompt, similar to other AI image generators like Dall-E or Midjourney, but integrated directly into Canva.

Visual Art, Media Art, Elementary, Middle Level, Secondary

Hybrid Photography - Digital Negatives and Cyanotype 10 PEOPLE MAX

Music Building Room 119 | Nate Ely, CEPA Gallery

Round Table Discussions

*Elementary Art, Room 101 | Middle School Art, Room 102 | High School Art, Room 103
General Music, Room 106 | Band, Orchestra & Chorus, Room 115 | Theatre, Room 119*

If you prefer to meet in district departments or small groups, please use The Commons.

These self-directed discussions bring together educators to share insights, challenges, and best practices within their disciplines. Participants will engage in meaningful dialogue, exchange creative strategies, and explore ways to strengthen their programs and support student success.

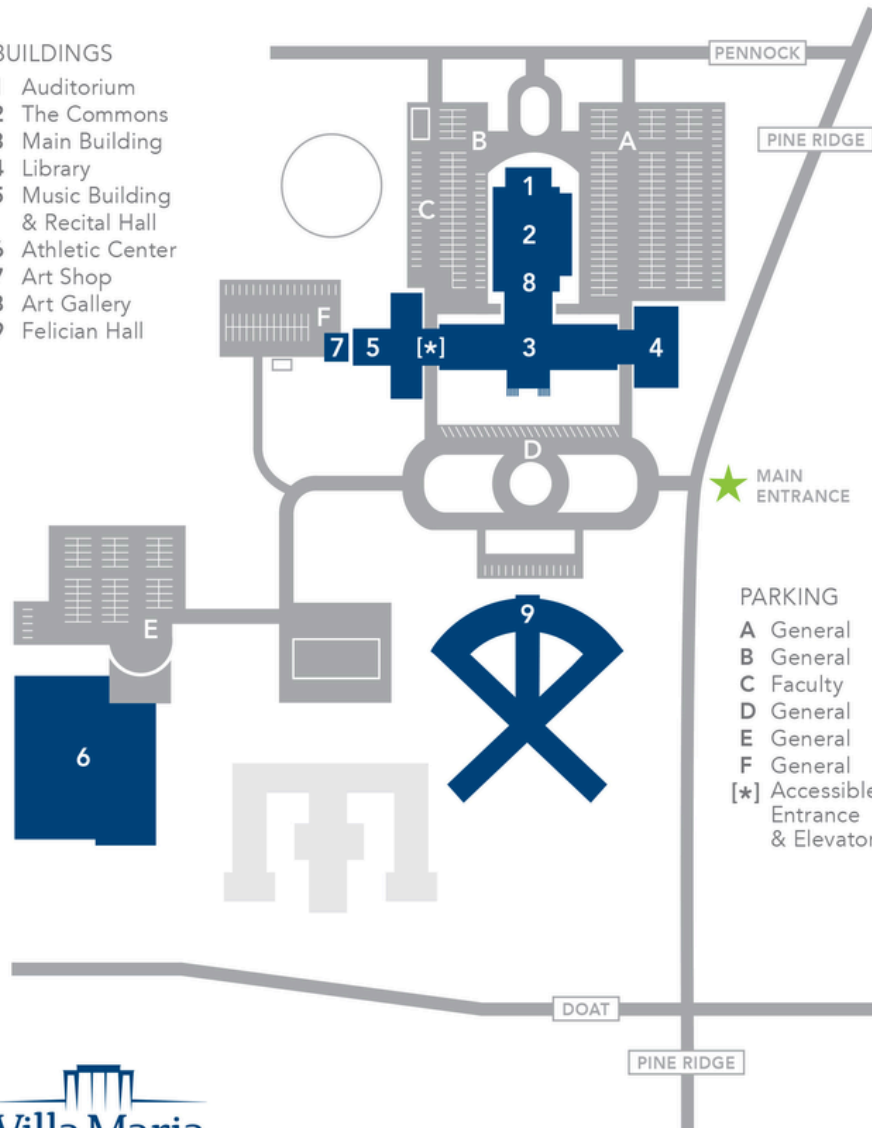

Guiding Questions:

- What's working well in our classrooms right now? – Share a strategy, lesson, or tool that has been particularly successful with students.
- What are the biggest challenges we're facing, and what have we tried to address them? – Discuss common struggles and brainstorm possible solutions together.
- How do we keep students engaged and motivated in our subject area? – Exchange ideas on classroom management, project-based learning, or creative approaches to teaching.
- What professional development or resources do you find useful or need? – Discuss what skills or knowledge gaps exist and how the group can advocate for or seek out support.
